We are confident that such a reduction in the interest rate will not only provide relief to businesses but also foster an environment that supports growth, entrepreneurship, and overall economic development. This, in turn, will contribute to the nation's progress and help achieve the objectives set forth by the government.

We, the Advocates' Tax Bar Association, stand ready to offer any assistance or information required in this matter. We trust in your wisdom and considerate approach toward addressing the concerns of the business community. Your attention and prompt action on this issue will undoubtedly have a positive impact on numerous lives and enterprises in the country.

Thank you for considering our request. We eagerly await your favorable response and look forward to witnessing a prosperous and vivacious business landscape in India under your esteemed guidance.

With the utmost respect and sincere regards,

You're Sincerely,

[Om Kumar]
